

Project Exploration:

A Free Week-Long Science Institute at Alvernia University

ALVERNIA
UNIVERSITY

What	A free week-long science institute with hands-on educational activities and coursework on Physics, Engineering, Chemistry and Ecology including field trips to Angelica Creek Park, Carpenter Technology and a Science Museum.	Who	Middle school students rising 7 th , 8 th , and 9 th graders
When	July 7-11, from 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. (students may be dropped off no earlier than 8:30 a.m. and must be picked up by 5 p.m.)	Where	Alvernia University 400 Saint Bernardine Street Reading, PA 19607 610.790.1925
Register	This camp is free thanks to the generosity of the Carpenter Technology Corporation. Registration is limited to 150 students Registration forms can be requested by email to project.exploration@alvernia.edu , and must be completed and submitted by May 2, 2014. Participants will be selected via lottery.	Sponsors	 THE HOLLERAN CENTER FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT  CARPENTER